

'He's always loved the job' – Piggy French pilots the Ricardo Z son Morswood to CCI* victory

Piggy turned the tables in the CCI*, winning by a comfortable margin on Susie Wood's neat little chestnut Morswood, despite collecting two showjumping time-faults.

Piggy and Kate Walls bought the son of Ricardo Z as four-year-old from Donal Barnwell and sold him to Susie.

"He's a cool horse – really fun," said Piggy. "I thought he'd grow a bit more, but he's scopey enough and has always loved the job."

Kylie Dodd was second on Guzzi
